CAMPAIGN NOTES.

The daily Opposition libel, otherwise the "tramp organ," has taken Messrs. Hackfeld & Co. under its guardianship. We are sorry for Messrs. Hackfeld & Co., for unless they shake off the libel sheet very speedily they will get into trouble of some kind, and as we have no quarrel with that firm we should not like to see them worried in any way. Touching the impertinent comments upon our reference to Messrs. Hackfeld & Co., we have simply to explain, first, that the outside pages of the ADVERTISER containing the advertisement in question were printed before the order of withdrawal was given; second, that in conveying such order the gentleman representing Hackfeld & Co. gave a reason for it, and it was upon this we based our comments. It is unnecessary to say that it had no reference whatever to a correction of an old advertisement, but had reference simply and entirely to our remarks upon the freight preference given to the Zealandia and Australia, as an element of danger to the treaty. As we have said, we have no quarrel with Messrs. Hackfeld & Co., who have an undoubted right to conduct their business as they please, neither would we have noticed the withdrawal of the advertisement had it not been for the statement of cause which alone possessed any significance.

The men who have control of the daily libel are concerning themselves a great deal about what may or may not receive Colonel Spreckels' approval. They may spare themselves anxiety on his account. He did not worry in the least when their entire strength, financial, social and political, combined to injure his business and drive his ever-active and beneficent enterprise out of the Kingdom, and he neither cares for nor values their sympathy. He is not bothering his head about their politics, having other and larger interests to attend to. The ADVERTISER is quite capable of running its own side of the political campaign, and it proposes to give the unprincipled junta which is fabricating libels upon better men than themselves, and sending them abroad through the press, a great deal more to answer than they have yet had presented to them. So far as Colonel Spreckels and his interests are concerned, they should save their breath to cool their own porridge, as they are only wasting their sympathy on him.

A great deal has been said of late about the gold law, and Opposition candidates, among them Mr. W. R. Castle, have denounced the "dishonesty" of the Government in not carrying out its provisions and enforcing payment in gold. Of course, to be consistent, the members of the Opposition party pay all lawful demands upon them above $10 in U. S. gold coin, a duty which is especially incumbent upon them when they happen to be simply acting as agents for third parties. That being the case we put the question pointedly to Mr. W. R. Castle, Opposition candidate and lawyer: Have you been guided by this rule of consistency and what you and your party designate honesty? or have you, since your campaign began, attempted to substitute certificates for gold in a case when the contract called for gold, and when a gold check was in your hands to make the payment? and did you subsequently rectify your mistake, shall we say, at the indignant remonstrance—perhaps it was demand—of your client? If you did not, you are certainly lied against; if you did, have at least the decency to keep your mouth shut now and hereafter about the working of the gold law, and the loss entailed upon poor people by the "neglect of the Government to pay in gold."

We really did expect better things from the Rev. S. E. Bishop than to find him lending his name to the campaign lie which Mr. L. A. Thurston and his political partners put forward to influence votes. There may be some excuse for a political attorney resorting to such methods, seeing that he belongs to the "Devil's Own," as King George the Third, "by the Grace of God" denominated the company of volunteer lawyers from the Inns of Court, a title it still proudly bears. A clergyman, even out of active service, stands on quite a different footing. Whatever else he may do he should not train with the "Devil's Own."

Rev. S. E. Bishop has a personal grievance against the Government. It is very odd, but nearly everybody who denounces the Administration is in a similar position. It was the painful duty of Ministers to make changes in various directions to secure the efficiency of the public service; hence the outcry against them in certain quarters. But Mr. Bishop in truth has no such complaint to make. He dismissed himself; and the Minister of the Interior permitted his name to remain on the pay roll several months after his written resignation—entirely voluntary on his part—had been recorded and formally accepted.

Rev. S. E. Bishop says: "The writer happened to be one to strike as hard as he knew how at the last Lottery bill, at the trifling cost of a fairly desirable Government appointment." Now we are informed and believe, that this gentleman writes at least under a total misapprehension of fact. His memory is entirely at fault. He was not interfered with, or remonstrated with, or in any shape or way led to believe that his conduct was at all displeasing to the Government, although his own sense of propriety should have suggested the unseemliness of a Government officer, in the service of the public, taking an active part in politics, we care not on which side his sympathies lay. Such conduct would not be tolerated in any country in the world with a regularly constituted Government except in this Kingdom of Hawaii, and in the interest of the public service it should never be tolerated again.

It seems as if this thought suggested itself to Mr. Bishop, and that to remind the Minister of his duty in the premises he forwarded his resignation, which the quickened conscience of official responsibility accepted in terms appropriate to the tenor of the letter in which the resignation of "a fairly desirable Government appointment" was conveyed. This is the sum total of the Rev. S. E. Bishop's grievance. To show that the Government bore no grudge against him it is simply necessary to state that the date of resignation and acceptance respectively was August 5th and 6th, 1884, and the date when Mr. Bishop's name finally disappeared from the pay-roll of the Survey Department was January 31, 1885. This does not look very much as if Mr. Bishop has any grievance on the score of dismissal. If the Minister of the Interior and Rev. S. E. Bishop had changed places, we make little doubt the record would have been different. The point of the story is that Mr. Bishop cannot get a place on the Hawaiian roll of martyrs. The dead Lottery bill will not serve his purpose.

Nevertheless we are surprised that a gentleman in "holy orders" should object to lotteries. He must have forgotten the pious devices for "whipping the devil round the stump" adopted at church fairs; the "church lotteries," "grab bags," "post offices," and the manifold little games of chance and deception whereby the 80 per cent dollar is transferred to the treasury of the church. If these things are permissible for the support of a religious institution why should they be contraband for the support of the State? But perhaps the church wants a monopoly of the lottery business.

Let it be understood that we do not approve of lotteries or games of chance of any kind, and that we are decidedly opposed to them as the Rev. S. E. Bishop, no matter what the object may be. Like that gentleman, we also "took a crack at that lottery business" and "got left." We discovered by sad experience that there was nothing in it for a lay brother; but for one in the line of Apostolic succession the lottery is everything. How can the Rev. S. E. Bishop go back upon the "lottery business" when it is recorded that the first vacancy in the Apostolic brotherhood was filled by casting lots? It may be very demoralizing, as the Rev. Seneca E. Bishop writes, but it at least has the sanction of high authority for the church.

It is understood that the financial backers of the Opposition candidates having watched the course of their campaign sheets, the "Bulletin," daily libel, and "Gazette," have concluded to put Dr. McGrew's talking magpie in charge of the "Bulletin." Its latest effusion, "To Be Watched," was too much for the "solid Muldoons" of the Opposition, who want to get to the point without circumlocution. The Doctor's magpie can beat fill the requirements of the place, and we shall look with interest hereafter to what the evening magpie may say about us.

The "Pae Aina" is a dirty little sheet printed daily in Hawaiian, and supported by the eminently respectable gentlemen of the Opposition. Of late it has broken bounds, and in "lying to order," has slandered several residents of character and repute. This is a contemptible way of running a campaign, and we are sorry to perceive that men who should be above this kind of meanness and rascality do not scruple to put forth and circulate in the Hawaiian tongue what they have not the courage to say and print in English.

The Opposition press appears to be anxious that we should expose the misdoings of their friends who misgoverned this country during preceding Administrations. If we did so just now we might miss the point of the present fight, and there is not a man of influence among the Opposition who would have as many rags of character left as would serve to make a flapper to beat flies off a sugar bag. We shall ventilate their misdoings at our own time and in our own way.

Let the Opposition take note of the growing scarcity of silver. Kalakaua dollars will be at a premium over gold at no distant date. When our Opposition friends have a demand for gold they pay, if possible, in certificates, which in law are the equivalent of gold; when they have a call for certificates they pay in silver, which they say is not an equivalent of gold but is of certificates. Yet the Opposition candidates rail against the Government for not exacting gold payments and making disbursements in gold. It will not be many months before their true changes and then—"silver is the only currency."

Mr. J. O. Carter has again committed himself to a false and unfair statement through relying upon information received from others. In the "Pae Aina" yesterday, Mr. Carter published a communication charging Mr. Hayselden with improper interference with the election, refusing to give up the voting papers to old men whose names are on the voting list, said receipts being in Mr. Hayselden's possession. Being challenged by Mr. Hayselden with this injurious misstatement, Mr. Carter said that Mr. Henry Waterhouse was his authority for it, and that upon the information received from him he wrote the letter in question. Being, however, desirous of doing what was fair, he promised to write a correction for the "Pae Aina." Whether it will appear in that libellous sheet is another question. To save himself in a measure from the injury which this false statement was calculated to inflict upon him in his canvass, Mr. Hayselden published a statement of fact in last evening's "Elele." We refer to the incident to show to what methods even the most trustworthy men on the Opposition ticket will resort to make a point against a National candidate.

Copies of the HONOLULU ALMANAC AND DIRECTORY subscribed for to the boys of Melia's Honolulu News Agency, will be delivered on Saturday next. The sale of this comprehensive illustrated Hawaiian Guide Book is very active, and the large edition will soon be disposed of.

Serious Accident.

Shortly after noon yesterday a very serious accident happened to a Chinaman at the corner of the lane leading to the Bishop's College, Nuuanu Valley. Mr. S. G. Wilder, Jr., rode home to his lunch, as usual, on a young colt. After arriving at his house he took off the bridle and tied the horse to a post with a rope. Something frightened the animal, and he broke loose and dashed out of the yard on to Judd street at full gallop. He turned on to the Nuuanu Valley road and started down the hill for town. At the corner of the Bishop's lane a Chinaman was trying to get out of the way of the animal, but becoming nervous, he failed to do so, and the furious beast dashed against him, knocking him down with great force. He was picked up directly afterwards by some natives, seriously hurt, and taken to the Queen's Hospital. Dr. Henry McGrew attended him, and found that one side of the scalp was torn off and the temple arteries were laid bare. One ear was badly grazed and bruised and one eye was closed. The doctor made him as comfortable as possible, and thinks he may recover. After the horse had knocked the man down it broke an iron fence and dashed into the Hobron premises, but soon after left them near the lower gate. He was stopped in his mad career directly afterwards without doing any further damage. The animal was badly injured on one knee and also in the side. Mr. James Brodie, V. S., was called to look at the horse, but will not be able to decide for a few days what may be the result of the injuries.

Four Young Rascals.

Four young native boys were yesterday tried in the Police Court for burglary and committed to various terms in the Reformatory School. From the evidence it appears that the Robinson homestead in Nuuanu Valley has been unoccupied for the past two months. On the 13th of this month Mr. John Robinson went to the premises and saw two boys there. He ran after them and chased them away. On entering the house he found that the kitchen door had been broken open, and firewood and bananas were scattered around. Several door locks were broken. A wardrobe had been opened and its contents rifled. Crockery and glassware had been broken. A telescope and musical box had been taken to pieces, and parts of the latter were missing. Several trunks had been rifled, the whole amount of the damage amounting to $98.

One of the boys, Lui, turned informant and stated in Court that they slept at the homestead on the night of the 12th in a bed in one of the rooms. Daniela and Kusiva broke into the house. The plaster on the walls was damaged by pickaxes and a walking cane. They all had a hand in breaking open the wardrobe and trunks. Daniela broke into a vault but took nothing. The latter said there was a box of money in the house, and they broke open the trunks expecting to find it.

A Detective up for Assault.

On the night of the late raid on the Chinese Secret Society, Beretania street, Special Officer Good, who first got into the building, drew his pistol and used his club. This he stated in his evidence at the trial. One of the defendants, Ay Yung, an old man, was struck on the head and at the trial he appeared in Court with a bandage around it. He claims that Good struck him and has had him arrested for assault and battery. Good will have to answer to the charge in the Police Court this morning.

No book ever published contains so much reliable and valuable information regarding the Hawaiian Islands in such small compass as the HONOLULU ALMANAC AND DIRECTORY, 1886. Price, 50 cents.

AUSTRALASIAN NEWS.

At the Melbourne wool sales the prices ruled very firm. Greasy wool brought 10½d per pound, and scoured sold at 1s 4½d to 1s 6½d per pound.

There will be a general election in Victoria on February 20th. An Australian cricket team is about to proceed to England.

News from Mauritius, December 9th, states that the sugar crop is much smaller than that of last year, the decrease being at least 25,000 tons.

The British Post Office authorities having approved the proposal of South Australia for a federal postal service between England and the Colonies, tenders are to be called for at an early date.

New Zealand news is of no special interest.

Prayers and Politics.

Last night at the Kawaiahaoh Church they again had "prayers and politics." The meeting was led by the pastor, Rev. H. H. Parker, and in preaching, he alluded to the death of Kalakaua, who, he said, died from the free use of gin. Messrs. J. O. Carter and Henry Waterhouse were present towards the latter part of the service. The Carter-Waterhouse combination made a few brief remarks before the assembled congregation on the main points of the political situation from the Opposition standpoint.

T. B. Walker's Arrest.

As announced by us yesterday, Thomas B. Walker was arrested on Tuesday evening for burglary, and had to give bonds for his appearance in the Police Court Wednesday morning. He appeared there at 9 o'clock and was charged with burglary at the Post Office. The prosecution asked for a remand until Saturday, which was granted. Mr. F. M. Hatch appeared for Walker.

LEASE

—OF—

RICE LAND

At Auction.

The lease of Rice Land described below for the term of six years and eleven months (6 11-12 years) to January 1, 1893, will be sold at Public Auction, at the salesroom of the undersigned, at 12 o'clock noon, on

SATURDAY,
January 30, 1886.

Immediate possession given; rent payable quarterly in advance.

Description of Premises.

That portion of the Crown land of Hauiki, lying between the public road and the Fish Pond of Wail and bluffs on either side of the valley; also, the triangular piece mauka of the road, opposite the artesian well, bounded by the public road, the bluff and the water course.

18 41-100 acres of this land, as per survey, is Rice land of the best quality, in prime condition for immediate planting, abundantly supplied with water from an artesian well on the land, and 4 57-100 acres of this land is now covered with Corn, which is included in the purchase of the lease. The Rice land acreage may be increased from year to year by breaking up new patches on the mauka side; this land is two and one-half miles from Moesman's corner, and is admirably adapted for a vegetable garden on a large scale, as well as for raising small stock—pigs, chickens, ducks, etc., for the Honolulu market.

The lease includes all the buildings and appurtenances on the land, to wit:

One Dwelling House for Laborers,
One Store House,
One Cook House,

1 set of Hog Pens, covered in, supplied with iron feeding troughs, feed house, cooking apparatus for hog feed, together sufficient for the raising and care of 150 hogs.
1 Duck House, sufficient for 1,000 ducks.
1 Dwelling House for duck keeper.
1 Thrashing Machine for rice, and horse-power, covered with a substantial house.
1 large Thrashing Floor.

All the above are nearly new and in good condition, ready for immediate use. After the sale of the foregoing Lease there will be sold,

FOR CASH,

The following LIVE STOCK, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS and TOOLS, which together form a complete outfit for working the farm, viz:

Six Work Oxen,
(Two of which are accustomed to the China Rice Harrow),

IMPORTANT TO INVESTORS.

Valuable Real Estate in the Business Center of Honolulu

For Sale by Private Contract or at Public Auction.

The undersigned have received instructions from MESSRS. G. W. MACFARLANE & CO. to offer for sale at auction, at our salesrooms, on MONDAY, January 25th,

At 12 o'clock Noon,

Unless previously disposed of by private sale.

The whole of that valuable city property known as the BOOTH ESTATE, excepting only the corner lot, owned by Mr. James Olds, containing in all 20,990 square feet, together with houses, stores and buildings thereto belonging.

This is the most compact and desirable piece of property ever offered for sale in Honolulu. Its main frontages are 75 feet 5 inches to Nuuanu street, and 93 feet 6 inches to Hotel street. The rear front of the property extends from Nuuanu street, back of Messrs. Castle & Cooke's fine brick warehouse and store, 172 feet 11 inches to Rose Lane, the side frontage along the line of the Robinson lot to Hotel street being 142 feet 3 inches.

The value of this and the adjoining property might be greatly enhanced by carrying Rose Lane straight through to Hotel street. Access is had to Hotel and Nuuanu streets from the rear and center of the estate by lanes long in use on the property itself.

Situated in the heart of the retail business quarter of the city, and having a large area of available building space unoccupied, this property holds out unusual inducements to capitalists as a permanent investment. The present annual income is $4,500, or 10 per cent on $45,000; but as the leases expire shortly, the rental might be increased to $6,000 a year without expenditure for repairs or additions to buildings. If the estate were sold as a whole, however, by judicious and inexpensive improvements which a practical eye would suggest, even this large prospective income might be very considerably added to.

The Nuuanu street frontage is occupied by a row of two-story buildings, the upper story being used as dwellings, and the first floor as stores, which are always in occupation. Restaurants and retail stores similarly occupy the frontage on Hotel street.

The old International Hotel is in the center of the property, and goes with the lot. It is used as a lodging house and pays handsomely.

Another advantage of this fine property as an investment is its excellent sanitary conditions. It is on the highest part of the city makai of Beretania street, and is therefore easily drained.

The property, if not disposed of before date of sale, will be first put up as a whole in one lot. Failing a satisfactory purchaser, we shall then put it up in lots, for which purpose it has been subdivided into sixteen lots. We shall offer these lots at the following upset prices, viz.:

Lot No. 1.....	$1,800
Lot No. 2.....	1,800
Lot No. 3.....	1,800
Lot No. 4.....	1,800
Lot No. 5.....	1,800
Lot No. 6.....	1,500
Lot No. 7.....	8,500
Lot No. 8.....	1,500
Lot No. 9.....	1,500
Lot No. 10.....	3,750
Lot No. 11.....	2,750
Lot No. 12.....	2,750
Lot No. 13.....	11,000
Lot No. 14.....	1,500
Lot No. 15.....	1,500
Lot No. 16.....	1,500

And upon the following favorable terms:

ONE THIRD CASH.

Balance in one, two and three years, with interest at 7 per cent per annum, secured by mortgage.

We solicit an examination of this property, and confidently recommend the investment as a permanent paying one, with greater contingencies for advancement than almost any other kind of property.

A Plan of the Property can be seen at the office of

E. P. ADAMS & CO., Auctioneers.

BOYS WILL BE BOYS,

And ere they are a dozen years old, cost Parents, Schoolmaster and Clothier no small amount of thought.

For us the perplexing question is, "What will he like? What will his parents like?"

Our answer is in a heavy stock of substantial clothing—THE BEST WORK OF THE BEST MAKERS. There are a thousand points about such clothing which are to be seen, not read about.

But in a general way we have sought to express this thought in our clothing—that the boy should not be a caricature of a little old man—that his infant life should not be dwarfed with the garments of maturity, but that there should always linger about his dress something of child-like grace and simplicity. And it is this happy touch, as well as conscientious workmanship and low prices, which gives this part of our business such vigor and life. Call and see our new stock of goods.
